Foster Home Contract

This Rabbit Foster Home Contract is entered into by and between the above listed Foster Home and the above listed Adoption Agency concerning the fostering of the above described rabbit.

The Foster Home and the Adoption Agency agree as follows:

The Foster Home

- Will care for the animal in the most humane manner;
- Will keep the animal in the Foster Home's own home until the animal is returned to the Adoption Agency;
- Will promptly notify the Adoption Agency if the animal has an ailment, injury, or illness;
- Will not allow the animal to breed, be used for vivisection, nor in any inhumane way;
- Will not abandon, sell, give away, dispose of, turn over to or relinquish custody or possession of the rabbit except to return the animal to the Adoption Agency;
- Understands and agrees that fostering this rabbit does not give permanent ownership rights to Foster Home;
- Will return the rabbit promptly to the Adoption Agency upon request;
- Will show the rabbit at a minimum of one adoption event each month.

The Foster Home further agrees that if, for any reason, the Foster Home does not wish to continue to foster this rabbit or if the Foster Home cannot abide by all the terms of the Contract, the Foster Home will promptly return the rabbit to the adoption agency.

The Adoption Agency

- Shall have the right to inspect the animal at any reasonable time with reasonable notice;
- Will accept the rabbit back promptly, should the animal be returned for any reason;
- Will provide necessary equipment for the rabbit while the animal is fostered by the Foster Home;
- Will obtain and pay for reasonable veterinary care if notified by the Foster Home in advance that such is needed for the rabbit.

The Foster Home hereby certifies that all the information on this application is true and understands that false information may void this contract and any future contracts. The Foster Home also understands that failure to comply with future requirements, such as spaying or neutering, could result in its inability to foster more animals from this organization.
